Why Dell?

Dell has a longstanding relationship with the Department of Education & Training and is fortunate to hold a large market share of the notebooks and desktops purchased by schools throughout Queensland. Because of this, we are in a unique position to understand what devices work and do not work in a school environment.

Dell has chosen a small group of devices from the DET approved devices on the Education Panel for our BYOD Program powered by Datacom Systems. Three of these models were specifically created for the education market. Most of the devices in our BYOD Program are built for education and corporate environments – they are not retail/consumer devices. However, we have added a couple of consumer devices recently that have proved popular. All of our notebooks and tablets come with Next Business Day Onsite Warranty, and optional Accidental Damage Protection.... Dell also includes 24x7 software support. So you're covered!

About Datacom Systems

Datacom Systems specialises in supplying solutions to the education sector throughout Australia. This year, we are very pleased to have been selected as the preferred partner by Dell for the Department of Education & Training Parent BYOD program. We look forward to working with staff and families involved with this program, which leads the way for the use of technology in the classroom.

What is Not Covered? ADP does not include cover for:

1. externally-attached computers, peripherals, or other devices that may work in conjunction with the Supported Product;
2. components, cases, television or monitor wall mounts, wiring, or items commonly known as “accessories” or “consumables” and which are not built in or on the base unit of the Supported Product; or
3. any other components not internal to the Supported Product for which you purchased Service; and

4. other parts/components requiring regular user maintenance including but not limited to batteries, light bulbs, disposable/replaceable print/ink cartridges, print or photo paper, memory disks, memory cards, SIM cards, disposable memory devices, wire connections, carrying cases, stylus pens, docking stations, external modems, external speakers, game devices, game disks, secondary monitors, external mouse for notebooks, external keyboard for notebooks, or other input/output devices.
